48 HOURS

04/01/17 PREEMPTION

04/08/17 48 HOURS: "Death and the Dentist" – an updated rebroadcast of "Death and the Dentist" (OAD: 09/17/16), which includes an exclusive interview with Kingston, New York dentist Gilberto Nunez, who faces second-degree murder charges for the death of his lover's husband, Thomas Kolman, the case against him, and the secrets exposed during the homicide investigation. In 2011, Thomas Kolman was found dead by his wife, Linda, in his car outside of a gym he frequented. At first, no foul play was suspected; Kolman suffered from sleep apnea and was slightly obese. However, the medical examiner found an unusual drug in Tom's system -- midazolam -- a sedative sometimes used by those in the dental profession, and the death was ruled a homicide. Further investigation revealed that his best friend, Dr. Gilberto Nunez, was having an affair with his wife, Linda Kolman. Nunez told police Kolman knew about it and was fine with it. There were hundreds of text messages between all the parties, including some where Nunez impersonated other people. Even the name of the CIA was dragged into the case through a fake ID. It took four years for prosecutors to charge Nunez with second-degree murder and forgery. Nunez hired two top New York City defense attorneys who presented a very different scenario, saying Tom Kolman died of natural causes, insisting this was a murder case without a murder. The verdict: Nunez was acquitted of the murder charges and found guilty on the forgery charges. The Kolman family was unhappy with the verdict. Some former jurors were interviewed and were adamant that there were too many unanswered questions to prove the murder charges. Update for the 04/08/17 rebroadcast: In 2017, Nunez was sentenced for the forgery, insurance fraud and perjury convictions. He will spend the next two to seven years in prison. The Kolman family finds some comfort in knowing that he is behind bars. On-screen text graphic: Gilberto Nunez is expected to be sentenced on his forgery related charges later this year. On-screen text graphic for the 04/08/17 rebroadcast: As part of Gilberto Nunez's sentence, he was ordered to have no communication with Linda Kolman. A New York State review board is deciding if Nunez's dental license will be revoked. Interviewed: Gilberto Nunez; Detectives Michael Thomas and Brian Reavy; Lieutenant Kyle Berardi; Michele Kolman-Weber (former wife); Jillian Kolman (daughter); Marie Kolman and Tom Kolman, Senior (parents); Mary Ellen McManus (dental hygienist); Murray Weiss (criminal justice editor DNAinfo/48 HOURS consultant); Grant Fredricks (forensic video expert); Yameil Nunez (Gilberto Nunez' new wife); Gerald Shargel and Evan Lipton (criminal defense attorneys); Frances Kwak and Michael Dougherty (jurors). 04/15/17 48 HOURS: "The DNA of a Killer" – a report on the 1996 death of Angie Dodge; the unusual circumstances in which Michael Usry, Jr., a filmmaker and producer of a short film about a brutal death, became a suspect in the case; and the approach police took to try to find a DNA match through a public database that had been bought by Ancestry.com. In 1996, Idaho Falls teenager Angie Dodge was brutally murdered. The killer left behind semen which police tested against the DNA of men she knew, including Christopher Tapp. His DNA did not match, but after 28 hours of interrogation over 23 days, Tapp confessed to being there when she was killed, and stated that one of the participants was a man named Mike. Christopher Tapp was convicted of killing Dodge, but the case remained open because Tapp's DNA did not match the man whose semen was left at the crime scene. In 2014, police searched a public database that had been bought by Ancestry.com, hoping to find a match through familial searching. The search resulted in a partial match. Police got Ancestry.com to reveal the name of the anonymous man behind the sample - Michael Usry, Sr. - which ultimately led to his son, Michael Usry, Jr. Despite the close DNA match and the matching first name, Usry Jr. had nothing to do with the death and was officially cleared. His story raised serious questions about what happens when police use publicly available DNA databases to solve cases -- and what happens when an innocent man is tagged as a suspect. Michael Usry decided to make a documentary and was joined by Angie's mother, Carol Dodge, who had an agenda of her own: to find the killer. Their search has led them to believe that Christopher Tapp was innocent. Their combined efforts led to a review of the case and Tapp being able to accept a plea deal, which led to his release from prison after twenty years. On-screen text graphic: Carol Dodge met with detectives this week and continues to push them to find her daughter's killer. Chris Tapp says he has many job offers since his release last month and is happy to be weighing his options. Interviewed: Michael Usry, Jr.; Carol Dodge; Christopher Tapp; Mark McBride (Idaho Falls, Idaho Chief of Police); Greg Hampikian (DNA expert); Erin Murphy (New York University Law Professor); Patrick McKenna (Detective); Michael Heavy (retired superior court judge); John Thomas (Tapp's appellate attorney). 04/22/17

48 HOURS: "The Golden State Killer" – a report about true-crime writer Michelle McNamara's relentless search for answers, and the quest to find the elusive so-called "Golden State Killer", who terrorized Californians by committing 50 rapes and a dozen murders between 1978-1986. McNamara died in 2016. Her widower, comedian Patton Oswalt, discusses his late wife's untimely death which occurred during her investigation and those who are carrying on her work by finishing the book she was writing about the case. McNamara was fascinated with true crime and her on-line quest led her to a serial killer she had really never heard of: the EARS (East Area Rapist Surveillance) Killer, whom she rebranded as the "Golden State Killer", and pursued clues which she hoped to compile into a book. Her obsession with the case took a toll on her health, and her untimely death devastated Oswalt. Now others are hoping to finish the work she started – by publishing the book and finding the killer. The killer was a man who stalked his victims, blindfolded them, and raped and/or murdered them in Northern California. The rapes ultimately stopped, but after a seven-year hiatus, began again in Southern California. In 2016, the FBI used the 40th anniversary to announce the renewed investigation and a reward for the killer. On-screen text graphic: Michelle McNamara's book is expected to be published in early 2018. The FBI urges anyone with information on the Golden State Killer to call 1-800-CALL-FBI, or go to tips.fbi.gov. Interviewed: Patton Oswalt; Billy Jensen (true crime journalist); Paul Haynes (researcher); Larry Crompton (Contra Costa County Sheriff's Dept.); Anne Marie Schubert (DA, Sacramento County); Paul Holes (cold case investigator); Jane Carson-Sadler (victim); Margaret Wardlow (youngest victim); Debbi Domingo (daughter of victim); Michelle Cruz (sister of victim); Larry Montgomery (1986 investigator); Erika Hutchcraft (Orange County DA's Sex Crimes Unit) (C: Tracy Smith – P: Susan Mallie, Lourdes Aguiar, Gayane Keshishyan Mendez, Lauren Clark)

48 HOURS: NCIS: "The Double Cross" (10:00 – 11:00p) – the first in a six-part series taking viewers inside cases handled by the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), which has just celebrated its 50th anniversary and is responsible for investigating felony crimes, preventing terrorism and protecting secrets for the Marine Corps and the Navy. This episode focuses on the 1996 deaths of two Navy petty officers, Elise Makdessi and Quincy Brown, who were found dead in a Virginia Beach, Virginia apartment. Eddie Makdessi told investigators that the couple returned home and were attacked by an intruder, who sexually assaulted and stabbed his wife to death. Eddie was able to get a gun and shoot the man, who turned out to be Quincy Brown, his wife's co-worker. A case was opened, then a videotape was discovered in which Elise Makdessi claimed to have been sexually assaulted and raped, naming Quincy Brown as an assailant. A second investigation was launched. Certain facts in both investigations did not add up, leading investigators to take a closer look at the husband. Makdessi stopped talking. There was also no corroborative evidence of sexual assault, which led investigators to consider him a suspect who had manipulated Elise and had concocted a scheme to get rich, cashing in more than $700,000 in insurance policies after her death. He was indicted, but fled the country. In 2002, a Virginia television reported who had once been in communication with Makdessi, located him in Russia. After he traveled to do an interview, Russian authorities confiscated his film and Eddie's passport. Makdessi was able to get it back and was escorted back by a U.S. Marshall to stand trial. He was found guilty on two charges of murder. Interviewed: Brian Ricardo (former NCIS Special agent); Dennis Santos (NCIS Captain, Virginia Beach, retired); Mike Mather (television reporter); Nancy Simpson (supervisor and friend of Elise Makdessi); Beth Dunton (forensic specialist supervisor); Dan Rice (NCIS Special agent, retired); Ross Gardner (Special Agent, forensic examiner); Catherine Dodson (prosecutor, Commonwealth of Virginia) (Narrator: Rocky Carroll (from the CBS-TV series NCIS) - Producer: Susan Mallie)

Includes allegations of stolen children, drugs, and abuse and a portrait of its leader, Anne Hamilton-Byrne, who claimed to be the second coming of Christ. This is the story of a woman's attempt to build a perfect race through a collection of 28 children, who each had their hair bleached, were home-schooled on an isolated property, and were injected with LSD as part on an initiation ritual. The children of the cult, now adults, tell their harrowing stories of the treatment they received from loyal cult members, referred to as "Aunties". It is also the story of Detective Lex De Man who spent years trying to stop Anne Hamilton-Byrne, finally succeeding with the help of the FBI in the United States. Includes: (1) "The Family" – Yoga teacher Anne Hamilton-Byrne formed The Family in 1963. It was an apocalyptic cult with about 500 followers and more than 28 children. Some members willingly gave their children to her, others came from unwed mothers who were tricked into signing over their newborns to be raised by the cult, helped by members of The Family who were doctors and nurses at a nearby hospital. Many had no idea who their real parents were. In 1977, after years of rumors and speculation, police stormed a rural property and rescued seven children. The "Aunties" only faced charges of welfare fraud, while Anne Hamilton-Byrne and her husband Bill Byrne fled the country and for years, their whereabouts were unknown to the authorities in Australia. (2) "The Family...A Cult Revealed" - finding Anne Hamilton-Byrne became the obsession of Melbourne detective Lex de Man. He received a break in the case when Anne called one of the cult children from the United States. In New York, he enlisted the help of FBI, who would track her down to a farmhouse in the Catskills, and de Man personally escorted the couple back to Australia. Prosecutors ended up charging Hamilton-Byrne with conspiracy to make a false statement. Neither she nor her husband would spend one day in prison; they would each pay a fine of $5000. Authorities decided not to pursue any other charges. A couple of a dozen true believers stayed loyal. Hamilton-Byrne disappeared from the public until 2009, when she resurfaced on 60 MINUTES Australia where she denied any abuse. Anne Hamilton-Byrne is 95-years-old and is living in a nursing home in Melbourne suffering from dementia. On-screen text graphic: True believer Michael Stevenson-Helmer visits Anne every day. There is no designated successor to take over The Family from Anne. 48 HOURS

05/06/17

48 HOURS: A Resident Evil - a report on a pair of double murders in Omaha, Nebraska, committed five years apart, which were carried out in similar ways, leading investigators to believe that the same perpetrator was responsible for both crimes. In 2008, sixth-grader Thomas Hunter and his family's housekeeper Shirlee Sherman were the first murder victims. They were stabbed to death, with no apparent motive. Five years later, Dr. Robert Brumback and his wife Mary were stabbed to death in their home. The Brumback attack was eerily similar to the Hunter/Sherman murders of five years prior. The investigation revealed a connection between Thomas Hunter's father, a physician at the Creighton University Medical Center, and Dr. Brumback, who was his colleague. The trail led to the hospital and to a medical resident, Anthony Garcia, who had been fired by Hunter and Brumback. In the following years, Garcia finally obtained a medical license in Illinois, but was terminated from numerous jobs. His bad reviews at Creighton followed him. A clue from 2008 led detectives to believe Garcia committed both the 2008 and 2013 murders as an act of revenge. In July of 2013, Dr. Anthony Garcia was charged with four counts of murder. After fifteen days of testimony, a jury found him guilty. On-screen text graphic: Anthony Garcia has stopped communicating with his defense team and his family. A three-judge panel will decide if Garcia will be sentenced to death. A court date has not been set. Interviewed: Todd Cooper (court reporter, Omaha World Herald); Derek Mois, Scott Warner, Ryan Davis (Omaha detectives); Chhandra (sic) and Againdra Bewtra (doctors); Jeff Sherman and Brad Waite (sons of Shirlee Sherman); Jason Peterson (witness); Fernando Garcia, Estella Garcia, Frederick Garcia (brother and parents); Don Klein (prosecutor); Brenda Beadle (deputy prosecutor); Bob Molta, Jr. and Jeremy Jordenson (defense attorneys); and Cecilia Hoffman (exotic dancer). 48 HOURS: NCIS: "To Catch a Killer" (10:00-11:00p) - the second in a six-part series taking viewers inside cases handled by the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), which just celebrated its 50th anniversary and is responsible for investigating felony crimes, preventing terrorism and protecting secrets for the Marine Corps and the Navy. This episode focuses on two NCIS cases: (1) In 2008, the Portsmouth police and a team of NCIS agents in Virginia investigated the murder of Megan Landowski, the 16-year-old stepdaughter of Navy sailor Christopher Shortt. A few months before she died, she revealed that she had been inappropriately touched by her father's friend, Robert Hicke, who was also in the Navy. DNA evidence cleared Hicke. Months later, the case was turned upside down. A blood sample from an unknown male found at the crime scene was analyzed for biogeographical ancestry analysis. The results completely changed the course of the investigation -- the donor would self-identify as African American. Investigation led them to Robert Barnes, a friend of Meghan's. Barnes gave no motive, but he admitted to sexually assaulting and murdering her. Her parents opted for a plea deal instead of a trial. Interviewed: Christopher and Angie Shortt (Meghan's parents); Dana Shutt (NCIS); Bill Martin (NCIS Special Agent, retired); And (2) Former NCIS agent D'Wayne Swear reflects on a cross country search for the person responsible for a young woman's death. In a case that took more than five years to solve, D'Wayne Sears, now a technical advisor to the CBS television series, NCIS: NEW ORLEANS, relates how the 1992 death of Marilyn Yvette Allen, a woman found murdered near Camp Pendleton, in San Diego, California, led to former Marine Roosevelt Gipson. Gipson's girlfriend reported to police that he had admitted to her that he had strangled a woman, disposing of her body in a lake on Camp Pendleton. Police contacted NCIS. In an undercover operation, the team was able to get Gipson to admit to the crime. In February of 2000, Roosevelt Gipson was arrested and charged with the murder of Marilyn Allen. Interviewed: D'Wayne Swear (former NCIS Special Agent); Scott Bakula (actor); Seanice Etienne (Gipson's girlfriend); Jeff Winn (New Orleans Police Lieutenant/Marine Corps Reserve). 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "My Name is Victoria" (8:00 - 9:00p) – a report about California woman kidnapped, tortured and left for dead, who reveals her extraordinary tale of survival and the 18-year-hunt for her assailants that led to the arrest of an "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery" actor. This is the story of one woman's will to live through a brutal attack, how that night changed her life forever, and the investigation and changing technology that would help police track down her attackers 18 years later. Victoria, whose name was changed for this 48 HOURS broadcast, was just 19-years-old on Christmas Eve in 1990, when two men came out of nowhere as she approached her apartment and attacked her. The force of the attack knocked her out. She came to just as she was being thrown into the back of a car. With sheer will and quick thinking, she survived a series of terrible events, including multiple sexual assaults. Surviving that night was just the start of the investigation and the healing, which continues today. Unfortunately, the case went cold. Eighteen years later, police got the break they needed when DNA taken from Victoria's body the night of the attack matched someone in the system. The suspect, Joseph Son, was an actor in "Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery". Son's high school friend Santiago Gaitan was later arrested. Before trial, Deputy District Attorney Eric Scarbrough made a sickening discovery -- the statute of limitations for rape and kidnapping had long expired. Ultimately, Scarbrough found another way to legally prosecute the case. Original On-screen text graphic: Joseph Son's trial is scheduled for March 2016. Santiago Gaitan could be paroled as early as 2018. Last week, Victoria became a grandmother for the first time. She and her family are excited for a new beginning. On-screen text graphic for the 05/13/17 rebroadcast: Joseph Son's trial is scheduled for later this year. Santiago Gaitan could be paroled as early as 2018. In 2016, Victoria became a grandmother for the first time. 05/13/17

48 HOURS: "Murder in the Mansion" (10:00-11:00p) – a report on one of the most notorious cases in Texas history -- the 1976 ambush in a lavish Fort Worth mansion owned by Texas oilman Cullen Davis, that left two people wounded and two people dead -- one of them a child. To this day, no one has ever been held accountable for the crime. In 1976, Cullen Davis' estranged wife, Priscilla Davis, returned home to the mansion with her boyfriend, Stan Farr, and a friend. Gunfire erupted, and when it ended, Farr and Andrea Wilborn, Priscilla's 12-year-old daughter from a previous marriage were dead, and Davis and her friend were wounded. Both Davis and her friend identified the shooter -- a man dressed in black -- as Cullen Davis. The DA's theory was that Cullen committed the crimes because of the pending divorce and his banishment from the mansion, which had been ordered by the judge handling the divorce. They also believed that Andrea was shot before the adults returned home. Davis, then worth an estimated $500 million, hired Richard Haynes, the most famous defense attorney in Texas at the time, to defend him. When Andrea Wilborn's murder trial finally began, Haynes turned a routine case upside down, making the trial more about Priscilla than Andrea's murder. It took four hours for the jury to find him not guilty. Nine months later Cullen Davis was in trouble again -- charged with hiring a hitman -- but at trial, he was acquitted again. The Davises eventually divorced, Cullen Davis left Fort Worth, the mansion was sold and today is used as an event space. Now 83, Cullen Davis describes himself as a born-again Christian and he did not kill Farr and Wilborn, nor did he shoot Priscilla and her friend. On-screen text graphic: Richard "Racehorse" Haynes died in April. The mansion is now an event space often used for weddings. Interviewed: Jack Strickland (former Fort Worth prosecutor); Christy Jack (attorney); Dee Davis (Andrea Wilborn's sister); Trey Davis (adopted son of Cullen Davis); Dan Cogdell (attorney, protégé of Richard Haynes); David McCrory (friend of Cullen Davis). 48 HOURS: "Murder by Design" - an investigation into questions that still exist nearly twenty years after fashion designer Gianni Versace was gunned down outside his Miami mansion by Andrew Cunanan. He was shot dead on July 15, 1997 -- the killer walked up, shot him execution style and walked off, leaving Versace bleeding to death on the steps to his home. Investigation revealed Andrew Cunanan, who was openly gay, was a spree killer who thrived on attention and was willing to kill even his friends. Police across the country were already hunting for Cunanan for the murder of four others -- in Minnesota, he killed his friend Jeff Trail (who had been previously interviewed by 48 HOURS in 1993 about gays in the military) and his lover David Madson. In Chicago, Cunanan murdered real estate developer Lee Miglin and stole his car. Then in New Jersey, he killed cemetery caretaker William Reese, stole his truck and drove to Miami, where he lived off the grid for two months. With police and the FBI on his trail, he was even featured on "America's Most Wanted". Finally, a tip came that changed everything. After a four-hour standoff on a houseboat, police found the body of Andrew Cunanan. Now, twenty years later, there is still no hard evidence to the speculation that Cunanan and Versace has some kind of connection. On-screen text graphic: Twenty years after his death, the House of Versace continues to succeed, led by Gianni's sister, Donatella and brother Santo. Jeff Trail was interviewed on 48 HOURS: "Not In My Army" on 04/07/93. Interviewed: Lazaro Quintana (friend of Versace); Carlos Noriega (Lieutenant, Miami Beach Police); Richard Barreto (Miami Beach Police Chief); Michael Band (prosecutor); Robert Ahrends (Cunanan's seventh grade classmate); Nicole Murray-Ramirez (Cunanan's high school classmate); Michael Williams (Cunanan acquaintance); Mary Ellen O'Toole (former FBI profiler); Julie Hovland (friend of David Madson); Dale Barsness (detective); Stephen Byer (neighbor of Lee Miglin); Gustavo Sanchez (detective); Tim Gunn (fashion designer). 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Princess Diana: Her Life / Her Death / The Truth (8:00 -- 10:00p)" - a two-hour report examining the public and private life of Diana, Princess of Wales, who died on August 31, 1997 in a car crash with her boyfriend, Dodi Al Fayed, in the Alma tunnel in Paris. Through the words of those who knew her and admired her, through her own words, and through the archives of CBS News, this program examines the impact Princess Diana had on Great Britain, the monarchy and the world. From her 1981 wedding to Prince Charles until her tragic death, Diana was a complex, unpredictable woman who captured the hearts of the public -- during her royal marriage, her reemergence into public life following the royal divorce, her death and beyond. Her death was just as controversial as her life, as described through four independent investigations in two separate countries. The various theories are examined about what really happened the night she was killed in the car crash. The conclusion of the broadcast updates viewers on how her sons, Prince William and Prince Harry, are honoring their mother's good works, which helped to bring the British monarchy into the modern age. Interviewed: Lana Marks (Diana's friend); Patrick Jephson (Diana's private secretary); Ken Wharfe (Diana's Scotland Yard Royal Bodyguard); Sally Bedell Smith (author, Diana in Search of Herself); Ingrid Seward (editor, Majesty Magazine); Richard Kay (Diana's friend, Royal Commentator, "Daily Mail"); Peter York (writer); Mary Robertson (Diana's friend and employer); David Starkey (Royal Historian, CBS Consultant); Wayne Sleep (dancer); Trevor Rees-Jones and Kez Wingfield (Al Fayed Bodyguards); Roya Nikkahah (Royal Correspondent, "The Sunday Times"); Christina Lamb (Chief Correspondent, "The Sunday Times"); Tim Gunn (fashion consultant); Dai Davies (former Commander in Charge, Scotland Yard Royal Protection); Jeffrey Archer (author); Ben Wardlaw and Alice Marples (two people helped by Royal charities). 48 HOURS: NCIS: "One Of Their Own" (10:00-11:00p) - the third in a six-part series taking viewers inside cases handled by the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), which has celebrated its 50th anniversary and is responsible for investigating felony crimes, preventing terrorism and protecting secrets for the Marine Corps and the Navy. In this episode, NCIS agents investigate the 2001 murders of Navy Petty Officer Lea Anne Brown and her friend Michael Patten, who were viciously beaten, shot execution-style and dumped in a wooded area of Accokeek, Maryland. The case became high priority for NCIS -- one of their own was dead along with her friend. Working with detectives from the Prince George's County Sheriff's Office, they discovered information that ultimately connected the carjacking of William Hicks that same night, to the murders. Five suspects were identified: Cortez Carroll, Robert Odum, Eric Thomas, Aaron Hollingsworth and Marco Scutchings-Butler. After stealing Hicks' car, they happened upon Brown and Patton and viciously murdered them. The detectives and NCIS believed they had strong cases, but Robert Odum was found not guilty of murder because one juror would not agree to a guilty verdict for the murders, because she would not send another young black man to jail, but chose to agree to guilty on a kidnapping charge. Cortez Carroll pled guilty in exchange for life in prison. Eric Thomas was convicted and sentenced to life in prison. Aaron Hollingsworth is serving thirty years in exchange for testimony. Marco Scutchings-Butler was acquitted of the murders, but later found guilty in the carjacking case and sentenced to prison. Interviewed: Margery Patten (Mike Patten's mother); Cari Freemore (Lea Anne Brown's mother); Chuck Alderman (NCIS Special Agent, retired); Frank O'Donnell (NCIS Special Agent, retired); Jacqueline Broadus (Prince George's County Detective, retired); Jay Doyle (NCIS Special Agent); William Hicks (carjacking victim); Bob Dean (prosecutor); Mary Kaufman and Andy Patten (Mike Patten's sister and brother). 48 HOURS: "Death of an Olympian" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report about the August 2009 death of Olympian Dave Laut, shot to death by his wife, Jane in Oxnard, California. She claimed it was in self-defense. In her first television interview, she relates what happened that night and why she killed him. Dave Laut competed in the 1984 Games and was aiming for the gold when an injury upended his chances. He became a school teacher, athletic director, and coach; married his high school sweetheart Jane; and adopted a son. Jane Laut originally claimed Dave was shot by an intruder, but when detectives discovered a gun hidden inside a grandfather clock, she changed her story, claiming she killed Laut in self-defense. In her first television interview, she claims she never planned to kill her husband that night, but after years of psychological and verbal abuse, Laut went too far that night and she shot him. The Laut family says that Jane is a pathological liar. The police could not confirm any abuse. The evidence collected at the scene told a different story: Laut was shot from behind with a single action revolver -- every shot indicated pre-meditation. Forensic accounting concluded the couple was deeply in debt and that Jane was a reckless spender, in trouble with the IRS. Dave Laut was apparently unaware of their circumstances. In January 2016, the prosecution presented a case of pre-meditated murder with money and divorce as the motives -- and that Jane was never in physical danger from Dave Laut. Jane Laut testified in her own defense, explaining her motivation. After four days of deliberation, the jury found Jane Laut guilty of first degree murder. Original On-screen text graphic: Jane Laut is expected to be formally sentenced in June. On-screen text graphic for the 05/27/17 rebroadcast: Jane Laut's first chance at parole is in 2066. She would be one hundred and eight years old. Interviewed: Jane Laut; Don and Rebecca Laut (Dave Laut's brother and sister-in-law); Dotty Laut (mother); Sonya Sanchez (Detective, Oxnard, California Police Department); Mike Young (lead detective); Nabil Khattar (gun expert); Ron Bamieh (defense attorney); Marjorie Hernandez (Ventura County Star reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Gail Pincus (executive director, Los Angeles Country Domestic Abuse Center) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Judy Rybak, Greg Fisher, Chris Young Ritzen, Dena Goldstein) (OAD: 05/14/16)

05/30/17      48 HOURS: NCIS: "The Terrorists, The Spies, The Hackers" (10:00-11:00p) - the fourth in a six-part series taking viewers inside cases handled by the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), which has celebrated its 50th anniversary and is responsible for investigating felony crimes, preventing terrorism and protecting secrets for the Marine Corps and the Navy. This episode focuses on NCIS agents and their work involving terrorists, hackers, and spies. (1) NCIS agents talk about the hunt for a spy, later revealed to be Mostafa Awwad, a civilian employee of the U.S. Navy who downloaded the schematics for a new Navy nuclear aircraft carrier with the intention of turning them over to Egypt so they could sink the vessel when it sailed into the Suez Canal. To catch the spy, agents set up a sting including classic elements from spy novels, including a dead drop. (2) A look into the hacking of the Navy's Smart Web Move database, containing the records of 220,000 servicemen and women. A group named "Team Digi7al" taunted the Navy by posting the records online. In the end, Nick Knight, a 27-year-old enlisted man on the USS Truman was caught in a sting, along with a friend, Daniel Kruger. They have been ordered to pay $500,000 restitution back to the Navy. (3) The October 12, 2000 bombing of the USS Cole is examined. The first successful attack on a U.S. Navy vessel in modern history launched a new world of terrorism. The investigation went from a local event to a global one as they confirmed that al Qaeda suicide bombers working for Osama bin Laden rammed the ship with a boat full of explosives as it refueled in Yemen. The incident forever changed the way the agency approached terrorist attacks and was a watershed moment for both NCIS and the U.S. Navy. Interviewed: Georgios Sekeroglou (NCIS Special Agent); James Dougherty (Special Agent, FBI Counterintelligence Division); Michael DeBolt (cybercrime expert); Jay Doyle (NCIS Special Agent); Robert McFadden (NCIS Special Agent, retired); Michael Marks (NCIS Special Agent, retired); Cathy Clements (NCIS Special Agent); David P. Wroe (Commanding Officer, USS Cole DDG-67). (Narrator: Rocky Carroll – Supervising Producer: Josh Gelman)
